VORWORT

Das vorliegende Generalregister führt die Register der Bibliothekssignaturen, Werktitel, Personen, geographischen Angaben, Jahresangaben und Literaturbereiche der im Rahmen der Katalogisierung der Orientalischen Handschriften in Deutschland (KOHD) erarbeiteten Kataloge indischer und nepalischer Handschriften zusammen, die von 1962 bis 2016 in der Reihe Verzeichnis der Orientalischen Handschriften in Deutschland (VOHD) erschienen sind.

Im VOHD, Bd. II. Indische Handschriften (Teil 2 und 4 unter dem Titel Indische und nepalische Handschriften) sind 18 Teilbände erschienen, darunter als Teil 10 das Generalregister A für die Teile 1–6 und als Teil 11 das Generalregister B für die Teile 7–9. Nicht erschienen ist Teil 14, der den noch nicht katalogisierten Tamil-Handschriften vorbehalten war. Der Teil 19 schließt die durchgehende Zählung des VOHD II mit der Katalognummer 7293 ab. Beschrieben wurden Handschriften in verschiedenen indischen Sprachen und Schriften, wobei die Sanskrittexte in Devanagari zahlenmäßig weit überwiegen. Vom VOHD, Bd. XXXIII. Nepalese manuscripts existiert nur Part 1: Nevārī and Sanskrit, Staatsbibliothek Preussischer Kulturbesitz, Berlin mit 263 Katalognummern. Darin verzeichnet sind Handschriften in Newari, Sanskrit, Sanskrit mit Newari-Kommentar oder Übersetzung, Nepali, Hindi und Bengali bzw. Maithili. Darunter befinden sich auch Rechtsdokumente, Schenkungsurkunden und Kaufverträge auf Papier, Palmblättern und Kupfertafeln. Insgesamt wurden etwa 5600 Objekte erfasst. Diese Zahl ergibt sich aus der Summe der im Generalregister aufgeführten Bibliothekssignaturen.

Die Vorteile eines gemeinsamen Registers für alle Kataloge des VOHD II und XXXIII liegen auf der Hand. Jedoch ist zu beachten, dass verschiedene Faktoren zu einer gewissen Uneinheitlichkeit geführt haben, die auch in die Kumulation eingeflossen ist. Hierzu zählen mehrere Änderungen der Katalogisierungsrichtlinien der KOHD, die Tätigkeit verschiedener Bearbeiter über den langen Zeitraum des Gesamtprojekts und die Vorgabe, dass jeder Teilband eine in sich geschlossene, unabhängige Einheit bilden sollte. Nur einige formale Unterschiede wurden für eine bessere Benutzbarkeit ausgeglichen.

Im Generalregister entsprechen die Bibliothekssignaturen den Regeln der besitzenden Institutionen. Zum Teil unterscheiden sie sich in ihren Formen von den Signaturen in den Katalogbänden.

Im Register der Bibliothekssignaturen verweisen fett gedruckte Katalognummern bei Einträgen aus VOHD II, 1, 2 und 4–9 und VOHD XXXIII, 1 auf die Hauptaufnahmen von Sammelhandschriften. Bedingt durch die systematische Anlage dieser Kataloge wurden dort die einzelnen Texte der Sammelhandschriften auf die betreffenden Bereiche der indischen Literatur aufgeteilt und haben daher jeweils eigene Katalognummern. Die Hauptaufnahmen befinden sich stets beim ersten Text.

Die Präpositionen bei, in und zu vor Katalognummern in den Registern der Werktitel, Personen und geographischen Angaben weisen darauf hin, aus welchem Teil einer Aufnahme der Eintrag stammt. Einträge dieser Art gibt es aus VOHD II, 1, 2 und 4–9. Angaben bei den Handschriften sind die allgemeinen Beschreibungen der Objekte, die auch die Schreibervermerke und Provenienzen beinhalten. Angaben in den Handschriften stammen aus den Textauszügen. Angaben zu den Handschriften sind die Bemerkungen zu Autor, Werk usw. am Schluss der Aufnahmen. Nicht gekennzeichnete Einträge sind den Überschriften oder den Kolophonen entnommen.

Zahlen, die einer Katalognummer folgen und von dieser durch einen Punkt getrennt sind, bezeichnen die Positionen von Texten in Sammelhandschriften bei Einträgen aus VOHD II, 12, 13 und 15–19. Diese Kataloge sind nicht systematisch angelegt, sondern die Handschriften wurden in der Reihenfolge der Signaturen beschrieben. Sammelhandschriften haben stets nur eine Katalognummer, unter der die einzelnen Texte der Reihe nach aufgeführt sind. Ihre Zuordnung zu den jeweiligen Literaturbereichen erfolgte in besonderen Registern, deren Zusammenfassung das sechste Kapitel des Generalregisters bildet.

Aus dem üblichen Rahmen fällt VOHD II, 3 mit Beschreibungen von 52 südindischen Palmblatthandschriften (123 Texte). Auch dieser Katalog verzeichnet die Handschriften in der Reihenfolge der Signaturen und führt die einzelnen Texte von Sammelhandschriften der Reihe nach auf, jedoch hat jeder Text eine eigene Katalognummer. Die Katalognummern 1–123 entsprechen im Gesamtplan des VOHD II eigentlich den Nummern 1001–1123. Sie wurden in das Generalregister nicht als [100]1–[1]123 eingetragen. Daher erscheinen hier die Katalognummern 1–123 aus den Teilen 1 und 3.

In den Registern der Werktitel, Personen und Jahresangaben zeigt eine Katalognummer in runden Klammern bei Einträgen aus VOHD XXXIII, 1 einen Text in einer Sammelhandschrift an. Die davor stehende Katalognummer ohne Klammern verweist auf die Hauptaufnahme.

Im VOHD II, 3 wie im VOHD XXXIII, 1 gibt es nach Autoren, Schreibern, Stiftern bzw. Eignern sowie in Dokumenten erwähnten Käufern, Verkäufern usw. getrennte Personenregister. Im Generalregister stehen bei den Personennamen dafür die entsprechenden Funktionsbezeichnungen in runden Klammern.

Im Gegensatz zum VOHD II sind die Jahresangaben der Handschriften im VOHD XXXIII, 1 nicht in unsere Zeitrechnung umgerechnet. Für das Generalregister wurde das nachgeholt.

Durch die Tätigkeit verschiedener Bearbeiter sind Ansetzungen und Schreibweisen von Personennamen und Werktiteln nicht immer einheitlich. So gibt es beispielsweise Einträge sowohl unter Śaṃkara als auch unter Śaṃkarācārya. Mehrteilige Personennamen wurden bei getrennter Schreibung zwar so in das Generalregister übertragen, alphabetisch geordnet sind sie jedoch als Komposita, unabhängig davon, ob es sich bei den Bestandteilen um Namen, Beinamen oder Titulaturen handelt:

Rudra Bhaṭṭa ist eingeordnet wie Rudrabhaṭṭa.

Utpala Ācārya ist eingeordnet wie Utpalācārya.

Damit wurden die verschiedenen Schreibweisen von Personennamen an einer Stelle zusammengeführt. Es ist zu beachten, dass dadurch etwa

Nārāyaṇa Bhaṭṭa entsprechend Nārāyaṇabhaṭṭa vor

Nārāyaṇa Ācārya entsprechend Nārāyaṇācārya eingeordnet ist.

Das Register der Werktitel ist für ein ähnliches Verfahren zu umfangreich. Hier wurden getrennte Schreibungen mit Bindestrich bei den Einträgen aus VOHD II, 1–9 größtenteils aufgehoben und somit den Einträgen der Teile 12, 13 und 15–19 angeglichen:

Chāndogya-Upaniṣad → Chāndogyopaniṣad

Ansetzungsformen wurden nur in ganz wenigen Fällen geändert.

In den Registern des VOHD II sind gleichlautende Werktitel und Personennamen mitunter durch Zusätze wie [A], [B], (zu Meghadūta), (Sohn des Vijayabhaṭṭa) usw. voneinander unterschieden. Diese Unterscheidungen gelten immer nur für die jeweiligen in sich geschlossenen Teilbände. Gleichlautende Werktitel und Personennamen ohne Zusätze aus Registern anderer Teilbände können dieselben Sachen bezeichnen. Zur Vermeidung von Missverständnissen wurden im Generalregister daher Zusätze gegebenenfalls ergänzt, sofern diese den Handschriftenbeschreibungen zu entnehmen waren, wie beispielsweise bei den Werktiteln Bhāvārthadīpikā und Samjīvanī bzw. Samjīvinī. Es wird grundsätzlich empfohlen, alle in Frage kommenden Varianten von Werktiteln und Personennamen auch dann zu prüfen, wenn bereits ein Eintrag gefunden wurde.

Folgende Angaben besitzender Institutionen in älteren Teilbänden des VOHD II entsprechen nicht dem heutigen Stand:

WdtB, Marburg (ehem. PrSB)

UB Tübingen (ehem. PrSB)

StaatsB., Marburg

StaatsB-PrKB, Berlin

Diese Abkürzungen stehen für veraltete Bezeichnungen der Staatsbibliothek zu Berlin – Preußischer Kulturbesitz in den Teilen 1–11 aus den Jahren 1962–1991. In den jüngeren Teilbänden erscheint die Abkürzung SBB-PK für den seit 1992 gültigen Namen.

Museum für Ind. Kunst, Staatl. Museen, Berlin-Dahlem

Aus dem Museum für Indische Kunst und dem Museum für Ostasiatische Kunst der Staatlichen Museen zu Berlin wurde im Jahre 2006 das Museum für Asiatische Kunst gebildet. Die im Teil 6 beschriebenen Handschriften des ehemaligen Museums für Indische Kunst befinden sich zum größten Teil als Dauerleihgabe in der Staatsbibliothek zu Berlin und können dort eingesehen werden. Ein kleiner Teil ist im Museum für Asiatische Kunst verblieben. Nähere Angaben zu den Standorten befinden sich im Register der Bibliothekssignaturen, Abschnitt B.

Hermann-Gundert-Museum, Calw

Dieses Museum existiert nicht mehr. Es ist im Teil 6 als besitzende Institution von 16 Palmblatthandschriften genannt. Die Objekte wurden 1991 der Universitätsbibliothek Tübingen übergeben, wo sie neue Signaturen erhielten. Eine Gegenüberstellung der alten und neuen Signaturen befindet sich im Register der Bibliothekssignaturen, Abschnitt C.

Nicht berücksichtigt wurden im vorliegenden Generalregister die Konkordanzen der Schrader-Nummern in VOHD II, 2–6 und 8–9, deren Kumulationen bereits in den Generalregistern A und B vorliegen. Im Jahre 1919 erwarb die ehemalige Preußische Staatsbibliothek 642 Palmblatthandschriften, die im Katalog 403 (1911) des Vorbesitzers K. W. Hiersemann in Leipzig verzeichnet sind. Die kurzen Beschreibungen hatten indische Gelehrte unter der Leitung von Friedrich Otto Schrader erstellt. Die Konkordanzen verweisen von den Nummern des Verkaufskataloges auf die Bibliothekssignaturen und die Katalognummern des VOHD II. Das Titelregister nach Schriften (ausgenommen Sanskrittexte in indischer Devanagari) für Teil 1–9 im Anhang des Generalregisters B wurde ebenfalls nicht berücksichtigt.

Künftig soll die Katalogisierung orientalischer Handschriften vorwiegend über die im Aufbau befindliche Datenbank KOHD digital erfolgen. Sanskrit-Handschriften der Staatsbibliothek zu Berlin – Preußischer Kulturbesitz und der Staats- und Universitätsbibliothek Göttingen sowie Handschriften in drawidischen Sprachen verschiedener Bibliotheken werden dort bereits erfasst.

Dr. Gerhard Ehlers in Berlin und Dr. Reinhold Grünendahl in Göttingen haben bei der Erarbeitung des Generalregisters geholfen. Dafür sei ihnen an dieser Stelle sehr gedankt.
